HONGKONG, 22nd July, 1901

THE Ethiopian cannot change his skin, nor the leopard his spots, neither can the Chinese official surrender his prejudices. Signs of this are abundant. You may compel him to adopt other habits, other customs for the moment whilst abroad, but once back again in the Celestial Empire he promptly returns to his wallow. If foreigners imagine that a new era, with new manners and different customs, will dawn for Peking on the return of the wandering Chinese Court, then are they vastly mistaken.
Little will be changed, some buildings will be erected for others which had the merit of comparative antiquity, but nothing else; some Boards or officials will take the place of others, who have perhaps quitted the scene altogether. But on the whole, after a more or less superficial sweeping and garnishing, the spirit of Celestial stagnation will take quiet possession of the capital and district, with the result that the same methods will prevail, the same apathy govers, and the same dislike to innovation inspire the ruling powers. Already there are indications of this, in the repugnance of the Empress Dowager to allow the Court to return to Peking until the invading bat-tallions of foreign troops have removed from the capital. A further proof of this hatred of change and dread of publicity is afforded in a recent Imperial order telegraphed to the Peking Plenipotentiaries, Prince CHING and Li HUNG-CHANG, from Hsiaifu. A translation of this interesting document, given by your Shanghai morning contemporary, is to the following effect:—
"You are hereby commanded to protest with all your strength to the Ministers of the Foreign Powers against the construction of forts within the area apportioned for the various Legations and closely threatening the 'Forbidden City' by "your best to make some sort of arrangement to prevent such a step. As for the "proposed retention of some foreign troops to act as railway guards for the North China railways, you are required to "arrange for the retention of a strong force for the purpose of suppressing any disorders on the line. The railway terminus "must be established inside the walls of "the capital; railway carriages must not "be permitted to steam straight into Peking.

"for the sake of the dignity of the place."

The presence of a garrison of any kind is still as objectionable as ever to the Empress Dowager, and the erection of forts behind which they could seek refuge, if attacked, is obviously a sore point with Her Majesty.
Why this should be, it is difficult to reconcile with a genuine desire for the restoration of friendly relations with the Powers. It might have been supposed that, after the Foreign Ministers had had so narrow an escape of being massacred and of the Legations being torn down over their heads, the Chinese Government would have been only too ready to agree to any reasonable precaution that would have the effect of restoring confidence and rendering residence in the capital less irksome. Even if the erection of fortifications did imply a want of confidence in Imperial assurance, the Chinese Government have no right to resent the want of the confidence after last year's treachery. They have done everything to destroy confidence, always a plant of slow growth, and they must be prepared to sacrifice something in order to regain it.
But the old lady of Hsiaifu is plainly not inclined to make any such sacrifice, nor is she willing even to sanction the establishment of military posts to protect the railway and keep open the route to Tientsin in case of necessity. This must be done by Chinese troops, forsooth, and so far from the occupants of the Legations being reassured by having a means of retreat left in their rear, it is proposed that this be virtually cut off by its being placed in the hands of the very persons who so nearly accomplished the destruction of all foreigners in Peking last year. The Powers are not likely, we imagine, to agree to such a proposal. The Chinese Government have got first to earn the right to be trusted. At present they are on their good behaviour: they are tolerated, of necessity, not trusted.
Nor will the plea of the Empress against the railway terminus being allowed to enter Peking weigh much with the Powers, who really desire, on account of the moral effect, to see the iron road penetrate the walls of the city and do its part in breaking down the ramparts of prejudice so long and so jealously maintained. The question of dignity certainly does not come in; the matter of convenience would be much more to the point. There are many great termini in the British metropolis, and they are also permitted to enter all the great continental capitals, although in many cases great difficulties have been encountered in constructing them, both in the shape of destruction of buildings and in the piercing of costly tunnels for the purpose. There is nothing either very costly or beautiful in Peking which need stop the way, and the question of sentiment is no stronger than was the case in Europe, where the railway was a dubious and not altogether welcome innovation. No one will urge probably that the line be carried into the heart of the so-called "Forbidden City," but there is no reason why the terminus should not be erected within the walls if more convenient for the traffic.
The tenor and terms of the Imperial order on the subject however, show the disposition of the Imperial Government, and it will be useful to take note thereof, so that no delusion may obtain as to the unchanged view of the Chinese officials and Court.

During the 24 hours ending at noon on Saturday there were reported 4 fresh cases of plague and 4 deaths (all Chinese).

Among the arrivals by the Hongkong Maru was the Rev. E. J. Hardy, M.A., the new Chaplain to the Forces in Hongkong, in succession to the Rev. G. B. Vallings.

Mr. James Henderson, foreman shipwright at the Kowloon Docks, left for England on Saturday by the P. & O. steamer Sunda, having completed a five years' engagement. On the preceding night a social meeting was held in the reading-room at the Docks, when Mr. W.
C. Jack, superintendent engineer, on behalf of the staff, presented Mr. Henderson with a gold watch, suitably inscribed.

The death returns for the month of June show that there were 51 deaths in the European and foreign community (43 civilians, 8 army, 1 navy) and 932 in the Chinese community.
Plague accounted for 57 victims, including 20 European and foreign civilians, 105 of the Chinese plague cases were among the Kowloon land population, 69 in No. 4 district, 54 in No.
5, 52 in No. 6, 51 in No. 9, 49 in No. 7, and 41 in No. 2, 93 deaths were from chest affections and 38 from malaria. The average death-rates in the principal registration districts were as follows:—British and Foreign civil community, 54 per 1,000 per annum (the same as May);
Chinese community, Victoria, Land 54.1, Boat 33.1; Chinese, whole Colony, Land 49.6, Boat 30.3; Land and Boat 41.8; whole civil community 42.3.

The French flagship Amiral Charner has come south to visit Admiral Buxtehude inspect the French ships at Fouchow, Swatow, Canton, etc.

An Imperial order from Hsiao has been sent to Shanghai for Prince Chun, permitting him to visit Belgium, Great Britain, the United States, and Japan, after completing his mission to Berlin.

We received yesterday morning from Mr.
W. A. Rubles, U.S. Consul-General, the following typhoon warning, dated Manila observatory, 7 a.m.—Typhoon in the Pacific east Luzon.

On Saturday the British transports Uganda and Sumatra arrived from Taku, and the Hutchinson from Weihaiwei; the hospital-ship Carthage left for Taku, and the surveying-ship Waterwitch for Borneo.

Colonel L. F. Brown, R.E., Officer Commanding the Troops, has been appointed a Member of the Executive and Legislative Council during the absence on leave of H. E. Major-General Gascoigne.

The command of the China Expeditionary Force was handed over, on the 11th inst., by Lieut.-General Gascoigne, K.C.B., to Major-General Creagh. General Gascoigne will sail for Japan on a pleasure trip shortly, and will land at Kobe.

The Clinical Report on Malaria as seen in the Government Civil Hospital during the half year of 1901, by Dr. J. Bell, Acting Principal Civil Medical Officer, and Lieut. Stewart, I.M.S., Acting Assistant Superintendent, is published in the Gazette.

By the appointment of Mr. F. A. Hazeland to the position of Second Magistrate, the office of Deputy Registrar at the Supreme Court is now vacant. Mr. J. W. Jones has acted as Acting Deputy Registrar for the past four years.

The German second-class cruiser Ilia, (Captain Lams), which arrived in the harbour on Saturday from the North, took an active part, it will be remembered, in the bombardment of the Taku forts, when the heroic Captain Lams was severely wounded. The Ilia is going on to Canton.

L'Echo de Chine says that bad news has been received from mid-China, the missionaries having grave reason for alarm in Shansi, Hupoh, Honan, Kiangsi, and certain points in Mongolia. But, as has been pointed out, as far as regards Shansi, any rate, the reception of the missionary party at Telyuanfu goes to show that the alarm is groundless.

With reference to a report that General Yin Chang, Military Secretary to Prince Chun, has been appointed to succeed H. E. Li Hai-luan the present Chinese Minister at Berlin whose term expires this year, the N.C. Daily News says that an enquiry at the proper quarter does not confirm the report, an official message to that effect having been so far received by the official most nearly concerned in the matter.
As far as attainments go, however, a better choice could not be made, as General Yin Chang speaks German fluently, and is a very able officer.

An Asahi telegram, dated Tokyo, 10th July, says:—About 2,000 Koreans, who live in the district where the Seoul station of the Seoul-Fusan Railway is to be, recently sent a protest to the Mayor of Seoul against the removal of their dwellings. The Mayor referred the matter to the Korean Railway Department; but the latter is unable to do anything in the matter as the place has already been granted to the Japanese company. The site of the Fusan station, which has been handed over to the company, has also given rise to a dispute. The Korean War Department authorities raised an objection recently on the ground that the place was intended as a site for barracks. The Korean authorities at Fusan who transferred the property are reported to be in an awkward fix, their own higher authorities pressing them on one side and the Japanese company on the other. It is, however, reported that the company will be able to start work as arranged if the Japanese Minister to Seoul and the directors of the company take up a firm attitude in the matter.

Yesterday night a ricksha coolie, tired of waiting for a fare who had gone into the Hongkong Hotel, went to look for his passenger, but was stopped by an Indian watchman, who ordered the trespassing Chinaman outside.
The coolie persisted, and the upshot was that the watchman either kicked or hit him in the stomach, dropping him like a stone. A hubbub ensued, and the watchman was arrested, whilst the coolie, to all appearance dead, was carried to the Central Police Station to permit of enquiries being made. Here he was examined, and a swelling over the spleen discovered.
As efforts to bring him round were futile, his removal to the hospital was deemed expedient. On the way the apparently dead man revived wonderfully, and scrambling out of the ambulance attempted to get away. The police in charge of the party, however, frustrated the attempt, and with much difficulty brought his struggling captive back to the Central where the circumstances were explained.
"What was the matter—why did you attempt to run away?" the coolie was asked. Thereupon, given through the medium of the interpreter, was a very demonstrative of the well-known antipathy of the lower class Chinese for European medical institutions—"I thought I was being taken to the plague hospital." He was accommodated with quarters next to those of his assailant.

The Chungking correspondent of the Echo de Chine says M. Bous d'Anty, French Consul, is leaving for home via America.

The Siamese Royal Decree on Quarantine, forwarded by the Acting British Consul-General at Bangkok, is published in the Gazette.

On her next voyage home, the steamer Kunig Albert will have as passengers H.E. Lieut.
General von Lessel, commanding the German Expeditionary Force in China, and the members of his staff.

Prince Konoze, representing the National Union Association, will shortly start for China, accompanied by Mr. Kuga, the chief editor of the Nippon. They will proceed to Peking via Chefoo and Tientsin, thence to Shanhaikwan and Newchwang; and on their way home will visit Changhai and Seoul.

During this summer the Japanese standing squadron, divided into several fleets, will carry out manoeuvres in Japanese and Korean waters.
A portion of the squadron at Yokohama and the remainder at Sasebo were to leave those ports on or about the 19th inst. to take part in the proceedings. After the manoeuvres are over, all the vessels will assemble at Hakodate, and will thence return in September next to Yokohama by way of the Pacific.

An action of a most practical kind was taken on Friday afternoon by His Honour T. Ser-combe Smith, Acting Paisee Judge, to decide a claim in summary case. It seems that during the typhoon in November last the embankment protecting certain paddy fields skirting Ching-Wan Bay was considerably damaged. The three owners of the paddy fields joined together and agreed to have the embankment repaired and to divide the cost between them in proportion to the extent of their respective lots. This plan was carried into effect, but when it came to settling up one of the paddy-field owners, Yung Kwok Shui by name, refused to pay his share of $57.40 on two grounds—first, because he was not a party to the agreement, and secondly, because his land was in no way bounded or protected by the embankment. He was thereupon sued by the other two, and as the only way of determining the defendant's liability, His Honour decided to go over to Ching-Wan and inspect the ground personally. Accordingly, in the afternoon, accompanied by several officials of the Supreme Court he went over to Ching-Wan in a steam-launch. In addition to going over the ground, His Honour examined one or two of the village "elders," and as a result decided in favour of the plaintiffs, with costs.

A DISASTROUS FIRE.

People living in the neighbourhood of No. 5 Police Station (Fire Brigade), were aroused from their slumbers about 2.45 on Saturday morning by the clang of the fire-bell. Fire had broken out in a paper-shop at No. 7, Victoria Street, and within a few minutes after the alarm was given the brigade was on the spot. Hoses were at once turned on, but in spite of the hard efforts made by both the Fire Brigade, under command of Deputy-Superintendent F. J. Badley, and the police, under command of Inspector Kemp, Sergeants Garrod and Gourlay, No. 8 and then No. 6 also caught fire, and it was impossible to subdue the conflagration until the three houses were thoroughly gutted. The paper-shop where the fire broke out had fire-crackers in stock, the explosion of which made by standers almost think themselves in the midst of a mimic battle. As soon as the fire was subdued, Sergeants Garrod and Gourlay entered the ruins of house No. 7, when on reaching the back staircase, a gruesome sight met their gaze. Six human beings lay huddled together at the top. All were more or less scorched. At the same time it was evident that death reached them through suffocation from heat and smoke before they suffered much from the burns. The victims were three males, aged seventeen, nine and one year of age respectively, and three females, aged 36, 30 and 12 years of age.

We regret to report that P. C. Gordon, while actively engaged in assisting to put out the fire, had an attack of epilepsy, and falling in the midst of his work was somewhat out about the face by falling timber from the burning houses. He was taken to the Government Civil Hospital, where he is reported to be doing fairly well. It is rumoured that the Transatlantic and Hamburg Fire Insurance Co. is involved in this fire to the extent of $4,000, in one policy, and another $2,500, while the Tung On is responsible for $2,500, the Pak On for $2,500, and Commercial Union for about $2,500.

LATEST STEAMER MOVEMENTS.

The P. M. steamer China, with mails, &c., from San Francisco to the 29th June, via Honolulu, has arrived at Yokohama, and left

GREAT EASTERN AND CALEDONIAN GOLD MINING CO., LTD.

An extraordinary meeting of the preference shareholders in the above company was held at noon on Saturday for the purpose of receiving and discussing the proposals of the liquidator, Mr. M. Bennet, for dealing with the company's assets. Besides Mr. Bennet there were present Messrs. R. C. Wilcox, E. George, K. B. Hui, C. E. Gaudin, J. Beneditos, R. K.
Wibel, and Chan Kin-hoi.

On the motion of Mr. GEORGE, seconded by Mr. EDOLPH, Mr. Wilcox was elected to the chair.

The CHAIRMAN introduced Mr. Bennet, who made the following statement:—The assets of the company amount to $12,500.
There is an outstanding call on ordinary shares of $1, which on 140,000 shares will amount to $140,000. Now, the question is—will the preference shareholders be satisfied to divide amongst them the $12,500 cash, which would give a dividend of about 23 or 25 cents per share, or do they wish to make the outstanding call of $1 on the ordinary shares? In my opinion it will take two or three years to get the money in. How much you would get I cannot say, but it is my firm belief that in the end there would be nothing at all to divide. I leave it to you to decide which course you will take.

The CHAIRMAN—You have heard what the liquidator has said. The assets are not very large, it is true, but they would not be very much helped by making a call, because it would be difficult to collect the call, as certain of the shareholders are not easy to get at, and it would be very difficult also to collect the call from any that could be got at. In addition to that, there is another consideration. Most of the preference shareholders are also ordinary shareholders, and it would be like passing the money to one pocket into another; a good deal of it, however, would be lost. The money that the shareholders would have to pay would probably undergo considerable reduction before it came back to their other pocket. Consequently, I should not recommend our making the call. I think the best plan will be to accept the liquidator's proposal to offer a dividend out of the balance remaining. That would have to be done, I believe, by an appeal for the general consent of the other shareholders, which could be got by circular.

Mr. GEORGE—I quite agree with what Mr.
Wilcox says. The legal expenses of collecting the call would amount to a considerable sum, and we might not get anything.

Mr. WIBEL—Will there be any delay about the payment of the dividend?

The CHAIRMAN—There will be very little delay, no longer than is absolutely necessary to get the usual formalities through. Of course, that takes a little time. The money would have to be a further meeting, at which the liquidator would give his final statement, but first of all it would be necessary to get the written consent of the preference shareholders, which would be done in this way: A form would be sent out to them which they would be asked to sign; that should present no difficulties. I think that some of the members should propose a resolution to accept a dividend of the available assets. It would be a call should be accepted.
Mr. GEORGE—I am glad to see that the preference shareholders accept the proposal of the liquidator to divide the available assets amongst them.

Mr. WIBEL seconded, and the proposal was carried unanimously.

The CHAIRMAN—It will be necessary to have a confirmatory meeting after this.

Mr. GEORGE—Another meeting?

The CHAIRMAN—I think so. A confirmatory meeting is necessary, and preference shareholders will perhaps be induced to turn out in greater force. We might have the meeting a month hence.

Mr. WIBEL—Is it necessary for every holder of preference shares to sign, or would a majority do?

The CHAIRMAN—The liquidator has been advised by the solicitors for the company that it is necessary for everyone to sign, otherwise a preference shareholder might get up and say he had not signed. However, I should think that a majority would be sufficient, and it would be very easy to get a majority.

This was all the business.

POLICE COURT.

Saturday, 20th July.

Before MR. HAZELAND.

CASES OF THEFT.

Mr. Simon, first officer of the s.s. Lithuanian charged a Chinese boatman, named Luk Wan, with boarding his ship without permit, and stealing therefrom one bottle-screw and screw screw. Accused received one month's hard labour.

Leung Sang was found guilty of unlawful possession of pieces of leather valued at $5.
He was sentenced to be imprisoned for himself.
His story not being plausible enough, he was sentenced to pay a $5 fine or to go to goal for fourteen days.

Chung Hing stole from one Yeung Kun, Su, a cook, a silver watch and chain, five pieces of clothing, a rattan bag and a purse. He was sentenced to six weeks' hard labour.

BOARDING SHIP WITHOUT PERMIT.

Mr. B. Huran, first officer of the s.s.
Reynolds, charged three boatmen with boarding his ship without permit, and with stealing therefrom one bottle-screw and screw screw.
They were found in the engine-room of the steamer.

The charges of intending to commit a felony were dismissed. For unlawfully boarding the steamer they received fourteen days' imprisonment each.

THE GAMBLING MANIA.

Inspector Warnock had fifteen men up before His Worship. First and second defendants were charged with keeping a common gaming house and were fined $12 each, the rest for gambling received $2 or eight days each.

Inspector Collett brought another group of eighteen men gathered at Victoria Gap for the same offence. First defendant, the keeper of the match where the gambling was carried on, received a fine of $10 or three weeks' hard labour. The rest were left with $2 or eight days.

A good story is being told of Mr. Chamsey Dowry, whose talkative powers are phenomenal.
He had been sailing across the Atlantic, when the sea was so rough that he was obliged to take to the great Atlantic. "Look here, Senator, you may get mail-pot, but you'll get over that.
There may be an earthquake, but I guess you'll get over that too. But look out, Senator! If you get lockjaw you'll bust."

CHRONICLE AND DIRECTORY

CHINA, JAPAN, COREA, INDO-CHINA, SIAM, STRAITS SETTLEMENTS, MALAY STATES, NETHERLANDS INDIA, PHILIPPINES, BORNEO, &c.,

1901.

THE THIRTY-NINTH ANNUAL ISSUE.

The DIRECTORY covers the whole of the ports and cities of the Far East, from Netherlands India to Siberia, in which Europeans reside. Not only is the Directory as full and complete in each case as it can be made, but each Colony, Port, or Settlement is prefaced by a DESCRIPTION, carefully revised each year, most of which will serve as accurate Guides for any Tourist, giving every detail in connection with the place, its History, Topography, &c., &c. The Information in these Descriptions, consisting of a hundred interesting articles, packed with facts concisely set out, and containing statistics of the Trade of each Country and Port, would alone suffice to fill a large volume.
